Manaka Mitsumi

The Three-Eyed Girl.

• She has a third eye on her forehead.

• For juveniles with multiple eyes, a change in vision can affect their mental state.

• In her case, she is experiencing personality switches resembling Multiple Personality Disorder/Dissociative Identity Disorder. Since her memories are mostly shared between personalities, there is little disruption to her daily life.

• Unlike her sister, she has a keen mind and is talented in both sports and academics. The only area where she's lacking is in the chest department.

• Seems to be playing out some distorted version of a sister complex. Naturally, so are her other personalities.

- She has the ability to flatten either part or all of her body into a two-dimensional flat plane.

Fujimi Yomi

Rapid Healing Girl → Undying Girl

• During elementary school, her body began to demonstrate the ability to heal rapidly. Since then, she's become seemingly indestructible.

• ...or so it was thought. In her first year of middle school, she was caught in a tornado and her body was torn to pieces. When she came back to life, it was revealed that she wasn't just a rapid healer, but immortal.

• With both parents working and the grandfather who had cared for her dead, she became rather apathetic towards everything. But ever since she came back to life...

She is standing room only, so some of the dead have been allowed to walk
the earth.

Her grandfather was formerly a

THE SECRETS OF THE UNDYING GIRL: FUJIMI YOMI

★ One part of her iris changes color, creating a double iris pattern.

★ She has a few screws loose in her head.

頭
HEAD

右目
RIGHT EYE

★ When Fujimi was resuscitated she experienced a great, harrowing pain. The shock was so bad it turned half her hair white.

★ Even if a piece of her body is cut off from the rest, she still retains feeling in that body part.

右腕
RIGHT ARM

下半身
LOWER BODY

LOWER BODY

★ Her healing abilities are so extraordinary that even if she were to have bolts embedded to hold her bones together, her body would recognize them as foreign objects and attack them. So for now, she just has to be careful not to leave her limbs lying around.

右脚
RIGHT LEG

左脚
LEFT LEG

上半身
UPPER BODY

★ She loves meat! In order to fuel her body's healing abilities, she needs lots of protein!

★ Though not really a zombie, she does look like one of the undead. Because of her somewhat gory appearance the other students call her "Zombie Girl." She doesn't seem to mind as much as you might expect.

★ In critical situations, she can throw her left hand for her trademark rocket punch. Using that as a distraction, she can then launch her head and use it to head-but her opponent.

★ Even if her muscle fiber is destroyed it grows right back painlessly, so unlike normal people she can push her body past its limits! But if she overdoes it, she goes to pieces...

★ Once, when Fujimi was badly injured, her wounds healed slowly and her parts never fully reconnected...but it's actually quite convenient when you consider that she can detach and reattach her limbs!

★ Her blood solidifies when exposed to air, so even if she gets a major cut she doesn't bleed out.

READING DIRECTIONS

This book reads from right to left, Japanese style. If this is your first time reading manga, you start reading from the top right panel on each page and take it from there. If you get lost, just follow the numbered diagram here. It may seem backwards at first, but you'll get the hang of it! Have fun!!

THE NURSE IS IN!

One-eyed school nurse Hitomi is always looking out for her students as they go through the up-and-downs of adolescence. Whether it's helping a student through an existential crisis or listening to a zombie girl's tale of the afterlife, Hitomi-sensei is always willing to do what she can to help. But Hitomi has her own problems to deal with, including a little sister with multiple personalities (all of whom are in love with their big sis!) and a co-worker who teases her mercilessly. Can Hitomi keep her own issues under wraps while keeping a watchful eye on her students?
